Location

The site is located in an attractive rural setting in close proximity to the Aberdeenshire town of Turriff. The site is accessed from Balmellie Road between Turriff and Balmellie Farm, adjacent to the speed restriction signs when leaving the town and marked with an Aberdeen & Northern Estates sale board.

Turriff provides a range of local amenities including shops and a supermarket as well as benefitting from both primary and secondary schooling.

The City of Aberdeen (35 miles) can be reached in less than an hour by car and provides all of the facilities befitting the acknowledged capital of the North Sea Oil Industry. Aberdeen has a mainline railway station providing inter-city and sleeper services to the south and also an international airport operating regular flights to London and other UK cities, as well as overseas destinations.

Description

The site extends to 0.66Ha (1.64 acres) or thereby of farm land and is currently used for grazing livestock. Access is taken from Balmellie Road as per the attached Ordnance Survey extract.

Planning

The subjects comprise a part of the land zoned M1 under the Aberdeenshire Local Development Plan 2012.
